

A Master's Degree with the Mizzou Ag Ed Advantage, but without the the Mileage!

Quality Courses
Courses Options from Mizzou
Interaction with Faculty from Other States

Variety of Course Delivery
Flexibility in Course Selection
Cutting Edge Content for Ag Ed

Here's how that program can look through distance or off-campus coursework:

Core Online Courses (15 credits):

- Advanced Teaching Methods (Ag Ed 8330)
- Leadership (8250) or
Student and Teacher Development (8340)
- Philosophical Foundations (8410)
- Research Methods (8510)
- Program Evaluation (8430)
- Intro to Stats (ESC PS 7170)

Project Coursework (2-6 credits)*:

- Thesis Project (4-6 cr.) or
Creative Component Project (2-3 cr.)

Remaining Coursework (9-15 credits)*:

- Other Online Coursework
- Missouri Induction Program (4 cr. Max)
- Missouri Inservice (8 cr. Max)

**depending on project option*

CAFNR

College of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources
University of Missouri

For More Information, Contact:
Tracy Kitchel, Director of Graduate Studies
Department of Agricultural Education
<http://aged.missouri.edu>
KitchelTJ@missouri.edu - (573) 884-7376